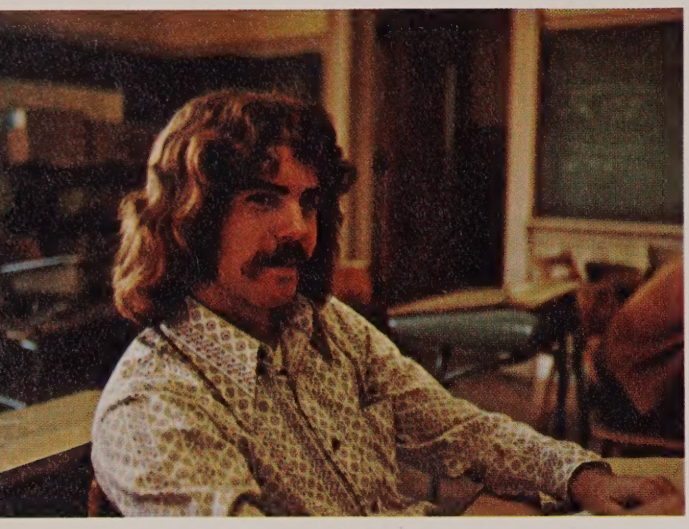
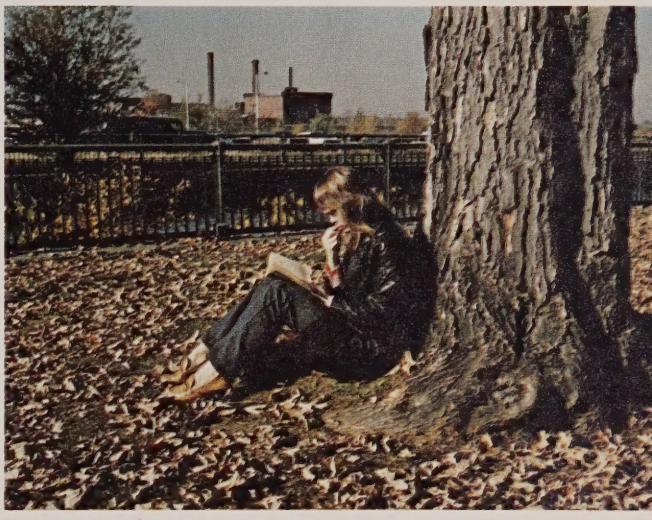
it is not a place or a building
or people
or things or events
but
in the final analysis
it is an interaction
of our thoughts
our memories



A year, 365 days, a complete revolution of the earth around the sun. A thin slice of eternity, man's attempt to measure the immeasurable. A few brief moments, one sixtieth of a lifetime, not to be forgotten and wished we could forget. Each one unique yet each one the same.



21

freshmen waiting for their big chance graduating veterans
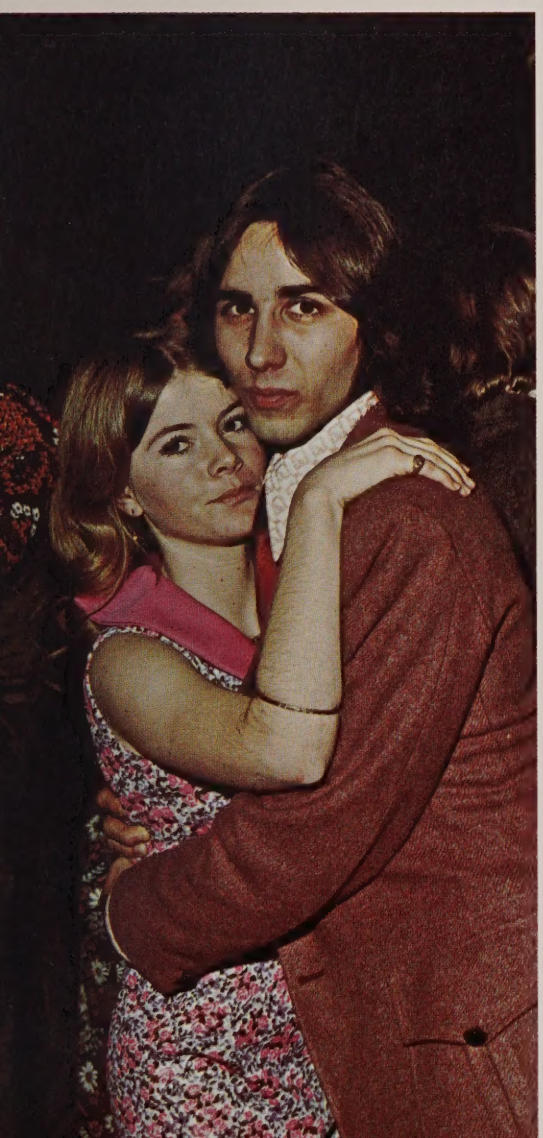
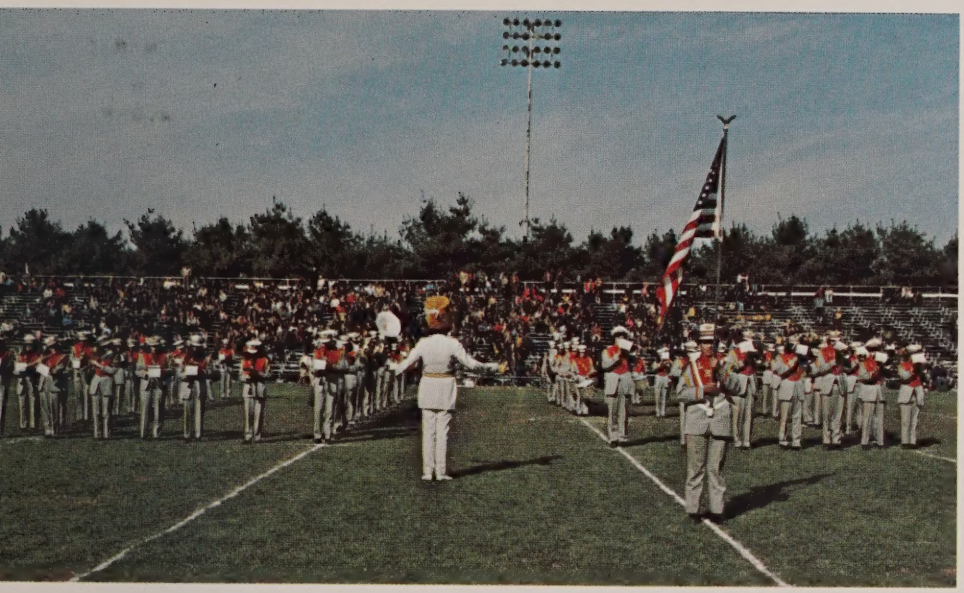
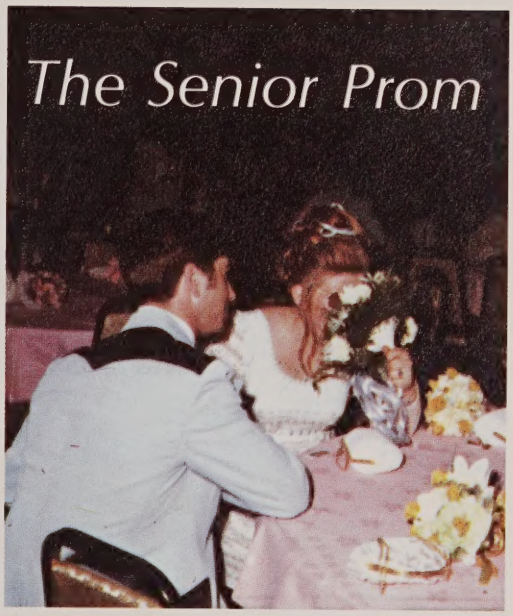
joyous memories and sad
left behind
looking for new horizons, bright futures.





and now we find ourselves
no longer the children
we once were
but not yet
the men we shall be,
we have lost yesterday
and are not quite sure
where to find tomorrow.



The Senior Prom

And better friends I'll not be knowing;
Yet there isn't a train I wouldn't take,
No matter where it's going.

Three Teachers Retire

During the 1972-73 school year, three of our most loved and respected teachers retired from the Lowell High School faculty.

Mrs. Sally Burns, who worked diligently as a girls' physical education teacher, will be missed by all of us, especially the Girl Officers, who valued her leadership as their regiment's faculty advisor.

Those of us who were fortunate enough to have been in Miss Catherine Maguire's senior English class will remember her warm, human kindness and her dedication to her profession.

As the teacher of a unique Distributive Education program, Miss Claire Quigley has been instrumental in guiding the careers of many grateful seniors, who will remember her for her thoughtfulness and her enthusiasm as a teacher and an advisor.

Realizing that the Lowell High School faculty will be diminished by the absence of these three dedicated women, the Senior Class wishes to thank them for their years of unselfish devotion to the education of the youth of Lowell. We wish them joy in their retirement.

Cadet Officers

The Cadet Officers' Brigade has been a unique institution at Lowell High School since 1880. Both written and oral competitions are conducted to fill the ranks. Another competition is conducted at the beginning of the senior year for promotions within the ranks.

Brigadier General Richard Livingston and Colonel Kevin Lally lead the Brigade during the 1972-73 school year.

Colonel John Beaulieu and Lieutenant Philip Dancause are the faculty directors of the program.

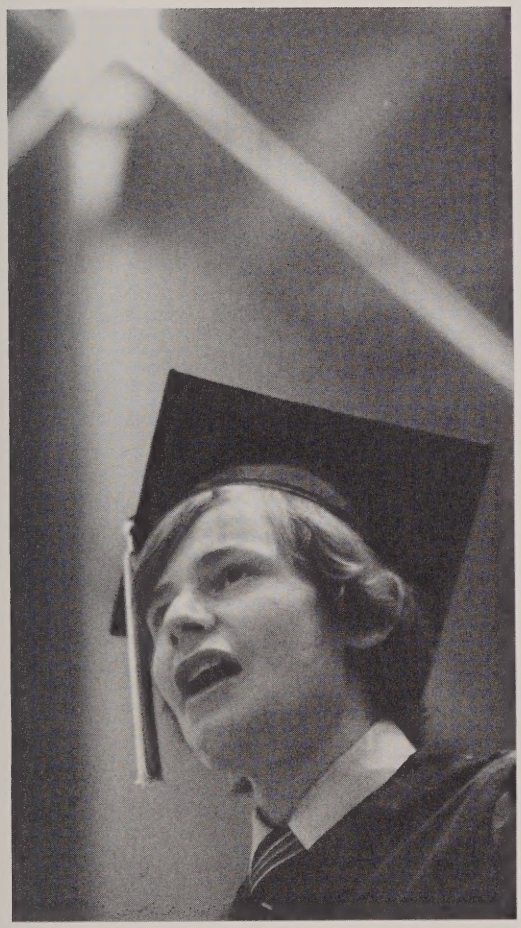
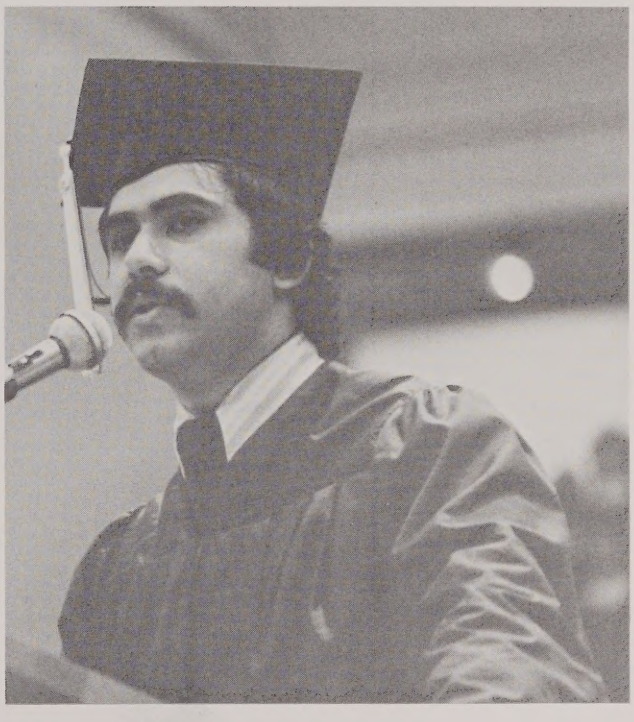
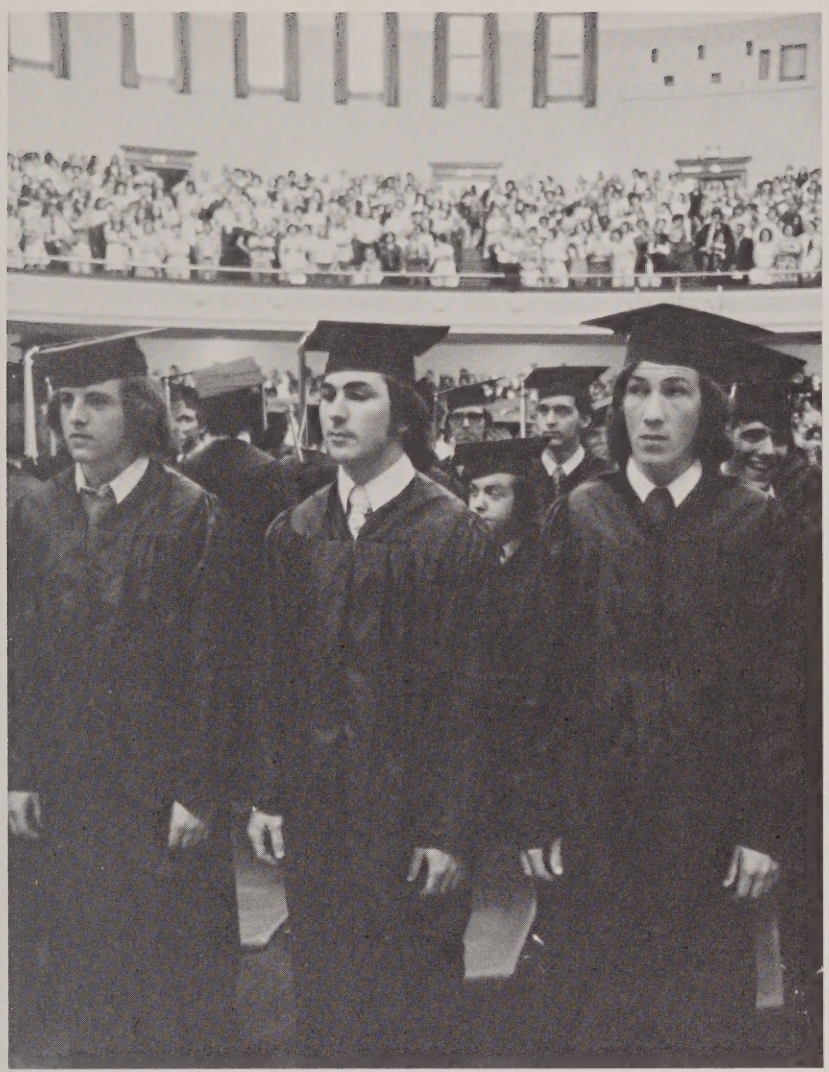
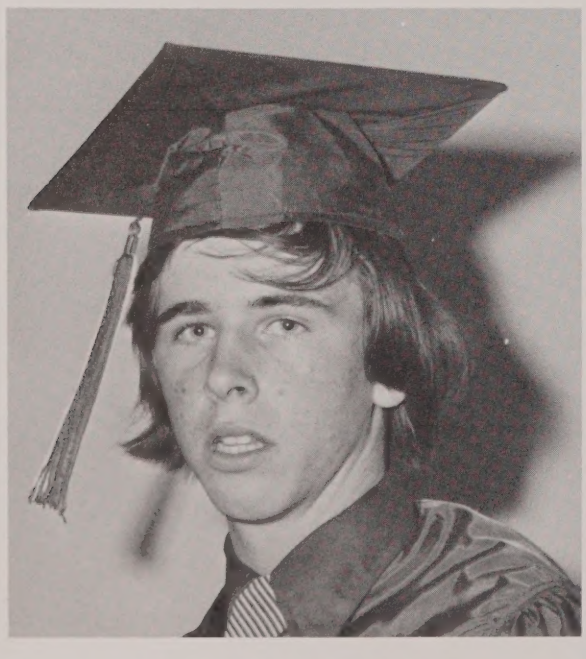
GRADUATION

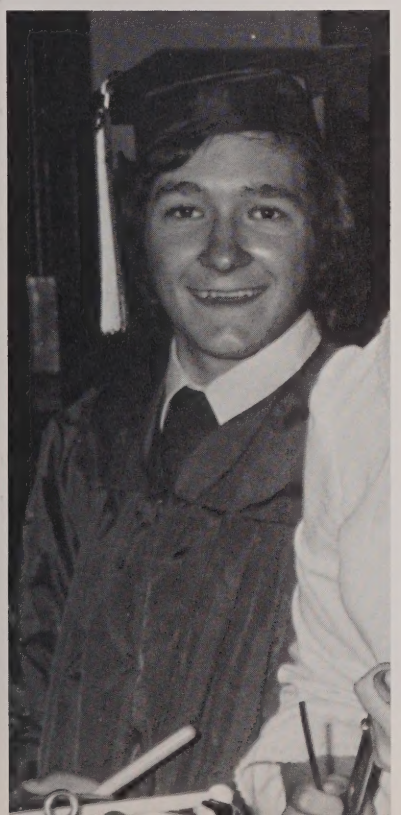


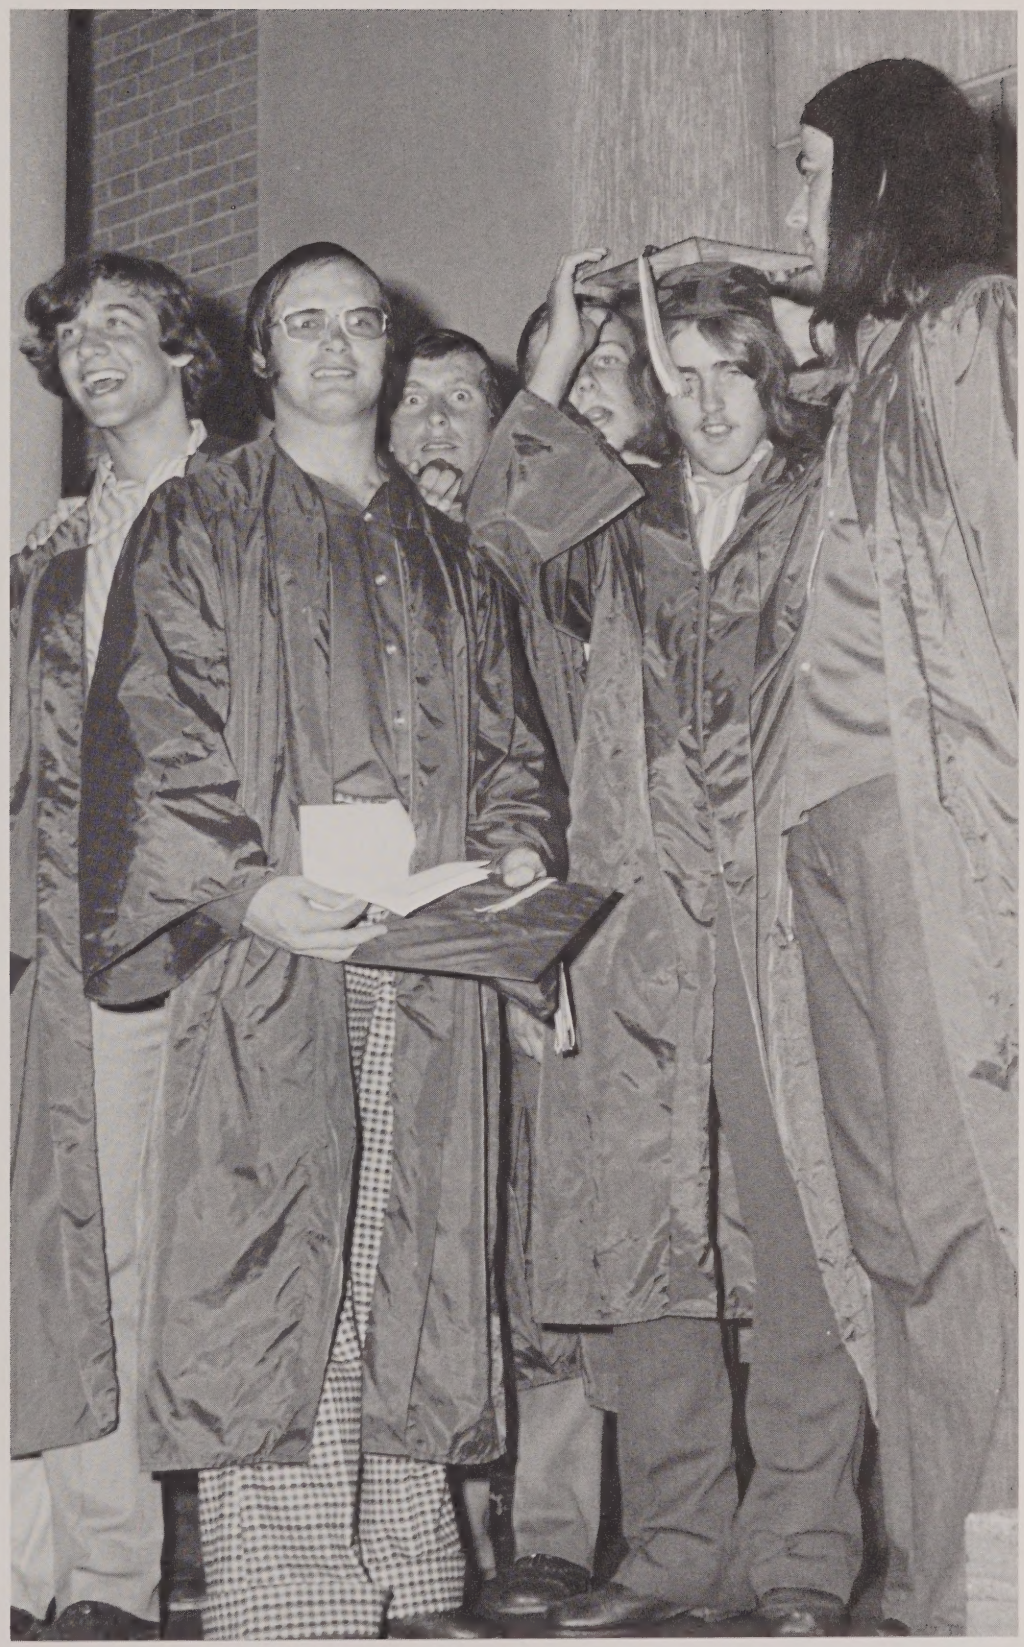
June 7, 1973

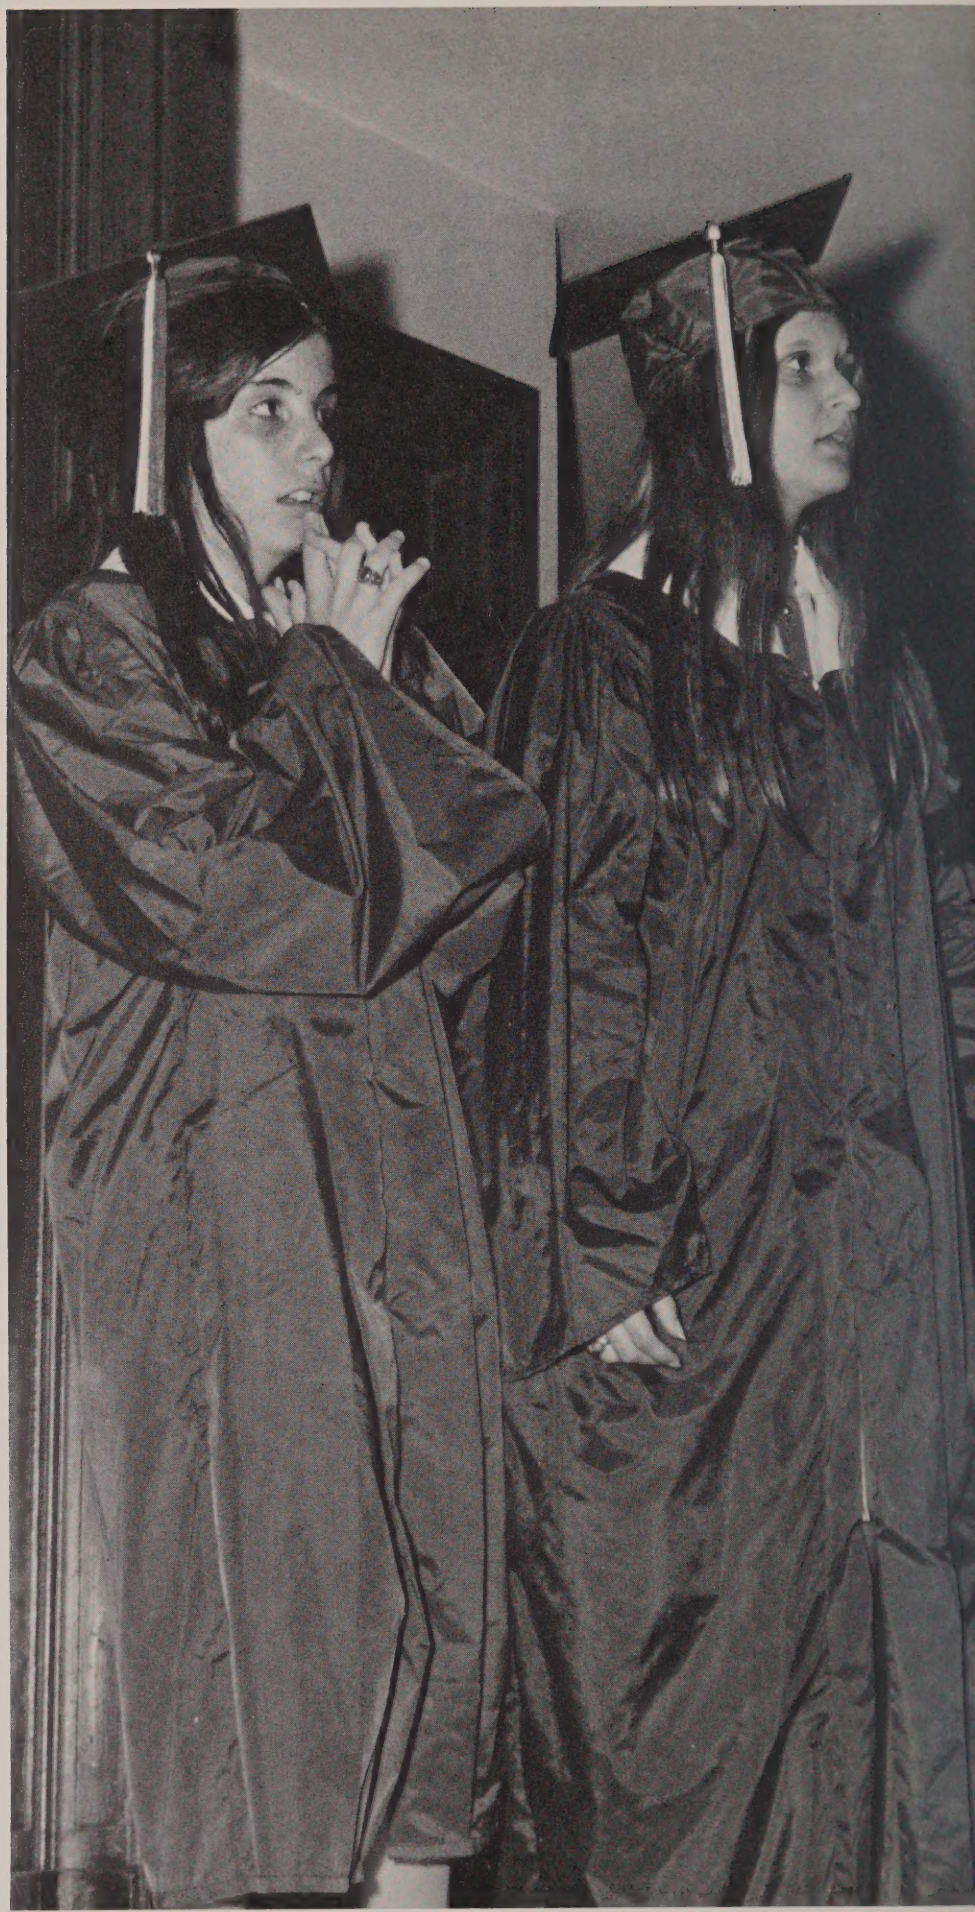


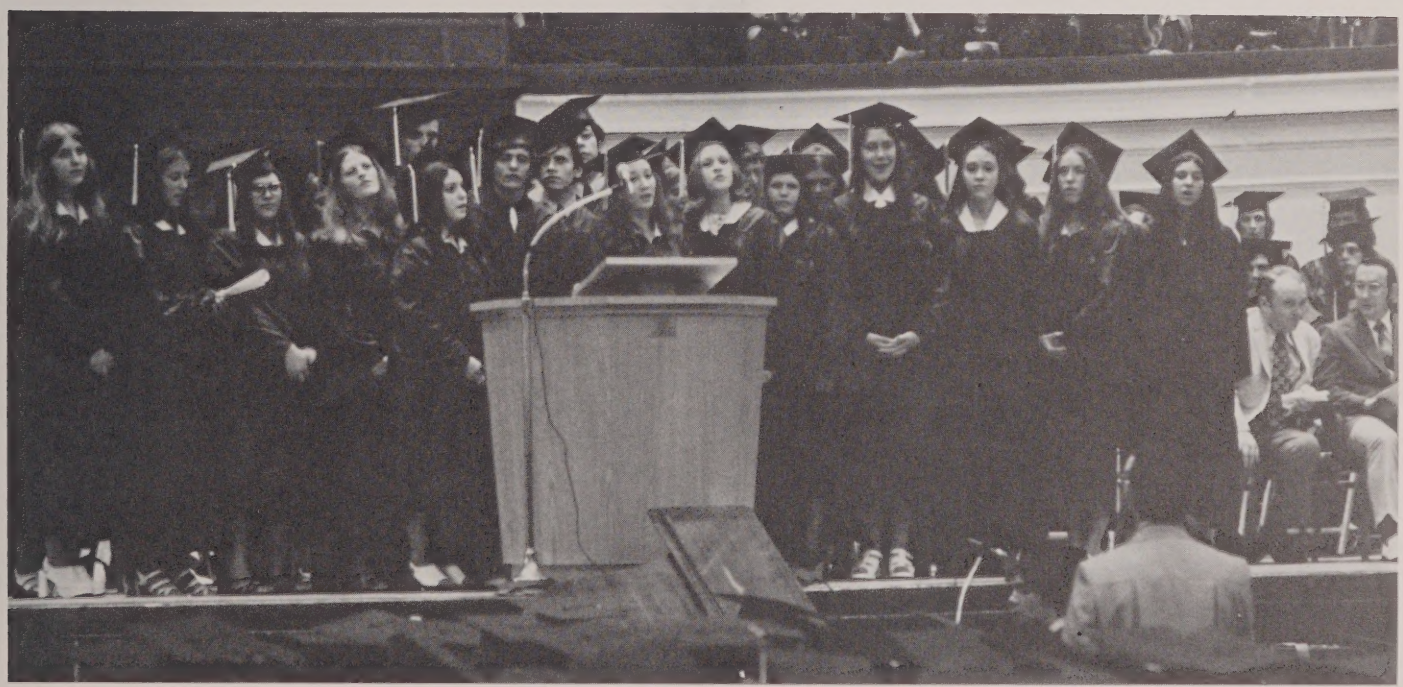


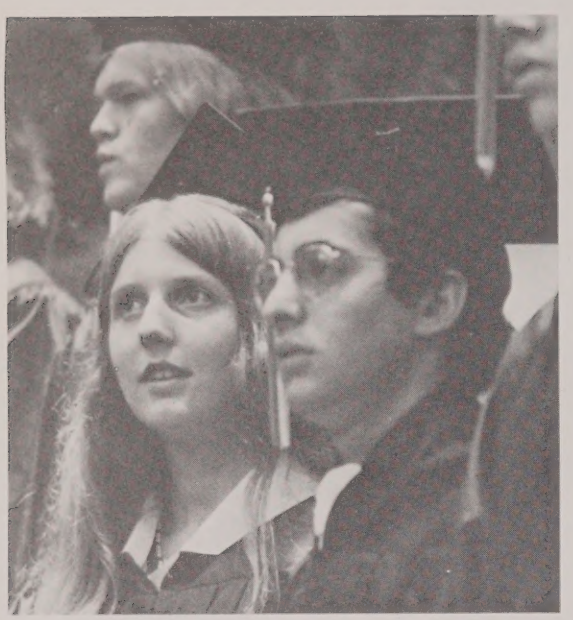












You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

Compliments of

Russell's
of Lowell

We have too many good things to offer you to make any up.

We won't guarantee you anything we can't pay off. (If we guarantee you Hawaii, start waxing your surfboard. You'll need it.)

Everything we guarantee will be put down in writing. In a legal document that you get a copy of. (If you agree to sign for computer training and the Delayed Entry Option, it will all be spelled out in language you can understand.)

We want you to know without a shred of doubt that you'll get everything you signed for. So we'll give you this card. On the front is what you signed for. And on the back is an address to write to in the Pentagon, just in case you didn't get what's on the front.

We think today's Army has a lot to offer you. We'll try to convince you of that. That's our job. But we'll never try to mislead you. That's our job, too.

WE DON'T MAKE PROMISES WE MAKE GUARANTEES
